Under separate cover Attachment A we are forwarding our personnel roster as of 31 March 1959. In each case status or lack thereof is indicated. The list includes personnel reductions resulting from the recent project measures, as reported in EGBA-55506, 20 February, as well as normal employee attrition and turnover since Reference C roster was prepared.

a. We have checked with [] with regard to statement of paragraph 4 of reference B. You are quite right in assuming this statement is in error. []'s wife is still actively employed in the project. We can only say, in the absence of more specific supporting data from reporting period in question, that this statement should have referred to "Identity 2 of reference A", i.e., of EGBA-1105, September 1958, concerning Klaus BOHNE ([]), who long since left [] rather than []. Your doubts may concern the point that our names are completely clear and the subject known (in this case), latter would appear to be satisfactorily resolved by the Attachment A roster, which provides that of references 1 and 2 identifies the personnel changes subsequently reported in, or are subject of enquiry in, references 4 and 5.

b. The following comments apply to identities in the Attachment A roster (identities 1 - 30):

i. Identity-3 had a nervous breakdown on 10 April 1959 and has been confined to his home on doctor's orders. It is hoped that he will be able to resume his work, but in view of his condition, this is problematical.

ii. We will be unable to comment on the points raised in reference B concerning Identity-4's behavior during the period of his reportedly overextended leave. This period was caused by the []
